

Wednesday Evening, April 27, 1983 at 8:00

FIRST PERFORMANCE IN THE UNITED STATES

AULIS SALLINEN

The Red Line

Music Drama in Two Acts

Libretto by the composer, based on the novel "The Red Line" by Ilmari Kianto

Conductor:	Okko Kamu
Producer:	Kalle Holmberg
Designer:	Kimmo Kaivanto
Assistant Producer:	Timo Paavola
Chorus Masters:	Eero Erkkilä, Alf Nybo
Lighting:	Simo Järvinen
Stage Managers:	Erkki Tammela, Jukka Silvennoinen
Topi, a Crofter	Jorma Hynninen
Riika, his Wife	Taru Valjakka
Puntarpää, an Agitator	Eero Erkkilä
Simana Arhippainen, a Peddler	Matti Salminen
Young Priest	Erkki Aalto
Kaisa	Anita Vätkki
Jussi	Harri Nikkonen
Tiina	Helena Salenius
The Vicar	Esko Korvala
Raappana, a Cobbler	Harri Tirkkonen
Kunilla, his Wife	Iris-Lilja Lassila
Epra, an Idler	Kauko Väyrynen
Pirhonen, a Policeman	Tuomo Häkkinen
The Children	Lauri Angervo, Tiina Mikkola, Anna Siltala

The Finnish National Opera Chorus and Orchestra

There will be one intermission.

By arrangement with Theodore Presser Company, Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania, Agents for Novello and Company Ltd., Kent, England, Publishers and Copyright Owners.

The Finnish National Opera's visit to the Metropolitan Opera is made possible in part by a generous gift from Volvo North America Corporation.